WHERE WE WORK

Women for Afghan Women’s (WAW’s) expansive programs now extend to 24 of Afghanistan’s 34 provinces, with WAW operating 32 protection centers in 16 of these provinces. In the United States, WAW runs a bustling community center in New York City, with concerted advocacy efforts in Washington, DC, and phone and online services provided to clients across the continent.

Since WAW’s founding in 2001, we have positively impacted the lives of OVER 1.3 MILLION women, children, refugees, immigrants, and families by:

• Providing direct services to 57,000+ women and children, and their families.

• Training more than 396,500+ individuals on women’s rights and more than 13,000+ on peacebuilding and on the role of women in peacebuilding.

• Providing more than 850,120 IDPs and refugee returnees with protection and monitoring services.

Your generosity over the years has inspired all of us at WAW to keep #AfghanWomenStrong every day.
